Paul is a native of Wilmington, Delaware and currently resides there. After graduating from the University of Delaware Honors Program, he worked on Capitol Hill for U.S. Senator Thomas Carper and the U.S. Senate Homeland Security Committee. While working on the Hill, he attended law school at the Catholic University of America and is an active member of the Pennsylvania and Delaware bars.

In 2013, Paul joined the law practice established by his father, Kevin O'Brien, where they focus exclusively on estate planning and probate matters. Their legal work helps create a circle of support around families that can be relied upon during difficult periods. Families who have children with special needs comprise about one-third of their clients.

In Paul's free time, he loves to travel with his wife, Juliana, two-year old daughter, Rowan, and dog, Emma. Paul is an avid sailor and fisherman. He also enjoys cooking and live music.

Paul serves on the board of Mid-County Senior Center. He remains politically active and donates time to local charities.
